To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, embrace the earliest Opportunity to offer our sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on the recent and auspicious Nuptials of Her Royal Highness Charlotte Augusta Matilda, Princess Royal of England, Lady of the Imperial Order of Russia of St. Catherine, with His Serene Highness the Hereditary Prince of Wirtemberg.

An Event so eminently preserving the Interests of the Protestant Cause, affords us abundant Source of Gratification, and we indulge ourselves in the pleasing Hope that those transcendent Virtues, which in regular Progression have uniformly challenged our Admiration, and adorned the high Birth of the amiable Royal Bride, will secure to her every Felicity in this illustrious Alliance.

May the warmest Wishes of your Majesty's Heart be gratified in the Event of this joyful Marriage; and may the illustrious Pair experience every domestic Blessing, and continue every domestic Virtue, which they have the Advantage to derive from your Majesty's eminent Example.

Permit us, Sire, to repeat our firm and loyal Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Crown and Government, and to assure your Majesty that no Endeavour on our Part shall be wanting to promote the Welfare and Happiness of these Kingdoms.

Signed, by Order of Court,

WILLIAM RIX.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I thank you for this dutiful and loyal Address! Your Congratulations on the Marriage of My Daughter the Princess Royal, with the Hereditary Prince of Wirtemberg, and the warm and affectionate Terms in which you express your Attachment to My Person, Family and Government, are highly acceptable to Me.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

St. James's, May 25, 1797.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of London, waited upon Her Majesty (being introduced by Earl Morton) with the

the following Address, which was read by Sir John William Rose, the Recorder.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled, congratulate your Majesty on the recent Marriage of Her Royal Highness Charlotte Augusta Matilda, Princess Royal of England, Lady of the Imperial Order of Russia of Saint Catherine, with His Serene Highness the Hereditary Prince of Wirtemberg.

The numerous and endearing Virtues, native in her Royal Mind, and cultivated with such exemplary Assiduity by the brilliant and eminent Conduct of her Royal Mother, form at once a Subject of Exultation and Regret, even on this joyful Occasion; of Exultation, as we are satisfied that the Dignity of her high Birth is proudly equalled by her transcendently amiable Qualities which we have long admired and revered, and of Regret, as by this promising Source of Connubial Felicity, the just Reward of those Qualities, the fair Daughters of Britain will be deprived of contemplating, in the highest Rank, One of their most conspicuous Models of maiden Excellence.

We earnestly hope, Madam, [that an Union of such exalted Promise may be crowned with every Prosperity to the Illustrious Pair that a Mother's most sanguine Wishes can form, and that the rest of your Majesty's fair Descendants may be Heiresses to Blessings commensurate to the exalted Virtues with which they are endowed.]

Signed, by Order of Court,

WILLIAM RIX.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer.

I Return you My Thanks for this very dutiful and loyal Address of Congratulation on the Marriage of the Princess Royal with the Hereditary Prince of Wirtemberg, and for those Sentiments so very favourable to Myself with which it is accompanied.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

St. James's, May 25, 1797.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common-Council of the City of London, waited upon His Serene Highness the Hereditary Prince of Wirtemberg (being introduced by Sir Stephen Cottrell, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies) with the following Compliments of Congratulation, which were read by Sir John William Rose, the Recorder.

To His Serene Highness the Hereditary PRINCE of WIRTEMBERG.

S I R,

THE Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, have great Joy in paying their Compliments of Congratulation to your Serene Highness on your safe Arrival in this Kingdom, and on your auspicious Nuptials with the virtuous and amiable Princess Royal of England.

The Dignity of your Princely House, in every Respect worthy of our Esteem and Veneration, together with the noble Endowments of your Mind, afford us the happy Preface that this illustrious Union will be productive of the most perfect Felicity of which the connubial Bond is capable.

May your Serene Highness long live to enjoy the Blessings of this Alliance, and may your accomplished Royal Consort crown your Wishes with a Race of Princes inheriting your respective Qualities, which cannot fail of transmitting your Name with Glory to the remotest Ages.

Signed, by Order of Court,

WILLIAM RIX.

To which Compliments of Congratulation His Serene Highness was pleased to return the following Answer:

My Lord, and Gentlemen,

I Thank you for this Proof of your Attention and Regard for me, which I value very much.

St. James's, May 25, 1797.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common-Council of the City of London, waited upon Her Royal and Serene Highness the Princess of Wirtemberg, Lady of the Imperial Order of Russia of St. Catherine (being introduced by Sir Stephen Cottrell, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies) with the following Compliments of Congratulation, which were read by Sir John William Rose, the Recorder.

To Her Royal and Serene Highness the PRINCESS of WIRTEMBERG, Lady of the Imperial Order of Russia of St. Catherine.

Madam,

WE, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled, request Permission to offer our warmest Congratulations upon the auspicious Marriage of your Royal Highness with His Serene Highness the Hereditary Prince of Wirtemberg.

This Alliance with so distinguished and accomplished a Prince, devoted to the Protestant Cause, we behold as an additional Proof of His Majesty's Paternal Care for the Interests of his People, and of his Affection for your Royal Highness.

The endearing Qualities of your Mind, and the brilliant Display of every Female Excellence, which we have been accustomed to behold with Delight and to reverence with Rapture, create Sensations of Regret which we cannot stifle, since the Ceremonials of Court Precedent require the Connubial Felicity of a British Princess in a Foreign Land; and, by a Separation from those Virtues, our Happiness will suffer an Alloy, in the Event which we hope will secure the Felicity of your Royal Highness.

The Memory of those Virtues will be ever dear to us, and we have solid Hope that they, in consequence of this joyful Alliance, will descend to adorn an Illustrious Race of Princes, proud of your Precept, and emulative of your Example.

We earnestly entreat your Royal Highness to believe lieve that, though removed from our Clime, you will live in our Hearts; and that every Circumstance which contributes to your Happiness must proportionally increase that of the Subjects of your Royal Father.

Signed, by Order of Court,
WILLIAM RIX.

To which Compliments of Congratulation Her Royal and Serene Highness was pleased to return the following Answer:

My Lord, and Gentlemen,
I Most heartily thank you for this Mark of your Attention and Regard, and I look upon it as a Proof of your Duty and Affection to His Majesty.

After which they had the Honor to kiss Her Royal and Serene Highness's Hand.

St. James's, May 27.
THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Dean and Canons of your Majesty's Free Chapel of St. George, within your Castle of Windsor, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Congratulations on the recent Marriage of the Princess Royal with his most Serene Highness the Hereditary Prince of Wirtemberg.

Every Event, whether publick or private, which concerns your Majesty's Happiness, cannot but interest, in a peculiar Manner, the Affections of your dutiful and loyal Subjects.

If we presume to take an early Part in expressing those Congratulations which are doubtless felt by every Subject of your Majesty's Empire, we trust your Majesty will impute it to the Opportunities we think we possess of observing not only your Majesty's many and eminent public Virtues, but those which are, perhaps, more intimately connected with the Event to which we advert, your Majesty's paternal and domestic Virtues.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Steward, Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Recorder, and Town Clerk of the Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Steward, Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Recorder, and Town Clerk of the ancient and loyal Borough of New Windsor, in Common Council assembled, humbly request Permission to approach your Majesty's Presence with our warmest Congratulations on the auspicious Nuptials of her Royal Highness the Princess Royal of Great Britain with his Serene Highness the Hereditary Prince of Wirtemberg.

Ever grateful for the inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's gracious Protection and Government, and particularly for the Advantages which this Town enjoys through your Majesty's Royal Residence among us, we most heartily rejoice in every Event which is productive of Happiness to your Majesty; and our most sincere and ardent Prayer is, that this happy Union will give to your Majesty, and every Branch of your illustrious Family, the most permanent Felicity.

Signed by Order of Court,

John Snow, Mayor.
